Mr. Steve Griffith
Oregon Ballistics Laboratory, Incorporated
2873 22nd Street, SE
Salem, Oregon 97302

Mr. Griffith:

The Aberdeen Test Center (ATC) Assessment Team verifies that on September 2, 2010 Oregon Ballistics Laboratory, Incorporated met all the requirements specified in Contract Number W91CRB-10-D-0006, awarded October 30, 2009, for the testing of Hard Body Armor and Soft Body Armor.

You are immediately eligible to compete for task orders for Hard and Soft Body Armor Lot Acceptance Testing (LAT) in accordance with the requirements of the contract. Each task order will specify the specific commodity and components to be tested. Task orders will be accompanied by the current ATC Test Plan, which is the overarching requirements document for the test. The ATC Technical Representative at your facility will be the central point of contact for all questions related to the test plan.

I understand the considerable effort Oregon Ballistics Laboratory, Incorporated expended to meet the requirements of this contract. My staff is committed to maintaining open dialog throughout the contract duration. I appreciate your effort and look forward to working with you in support of the Warfighter.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey P. Holt
Colonel, US Army
